

Award Winning Butcher Opening in Chard

The Fore Street butchers shop in Chard will be re-opening next week after a smart refit. Selling top quality, locally produced meat, the shop will be called Complete Meats. This family run business prides itself on being traditional butchers and already has shops in Axminster and Honiton.

Complete Meats are regular award winners. In November last year they won the coveted National Sausage of the Year award for their traditional pork sausages and scooped other awards at the Devon County Show and Taste of the West. They were also delighted when the Honiton shop won Butchers Shop of the Year for the South West for 2005, and in 2006 the Axminster Shop was Highly Commended.

As well as selling locally produced meat and manufacturing award winning sausages, burgers and homemade pies such as steak and kidney, the shop will offer a tasty selection of cooked meats, local cheeses and lovely delicatessen choices. For a lunchtime snack try a delicious homemade pasty or sausage roll.
